I.	Welcome Moderator <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Carroll Kreider, Moderator, called the meeting to order at 11:25 a.m. and opened with a prayer. ● Carroll recapped the history of events that led us to the meeting today

III.	Pastors' Statement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Nancy Hivner, Board Chair, read a statement prepared by the Pastoral team: We are grateful to be part of the Elizabethtown Church of the Brethren, a community that practices peace, service and openness to all. Each of us have been called to serve in this congregation because of these values, including the 2003 Church Council constitutional amendment regarding the meaning of membership. This statement, under consideration, clarifies these longstanding values and affirms our collective ministry that welcomes and ministers to all. As pastors we will continue to offer complete pastoral care and service to all who are part of our congregation including, but not limited to, baptism, parent/child dedication, wedding service. For those who may be concerned for us losing our credentialed status as licenced or ordained ministers, we are not afraid: credentials in a judicatory body that would deny full rights and services to all is out of step with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We will not be threatened or bullied into submission. We look forward to continued ministry with you as we practice peace, service, and openness to all.
IV.	Congregational Response and Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Kevin Miller: Expression of gratitude, humbled, inspired by spirit and understanding and love. ● Debbie Sager: Question on footnote #2 ● Paula Burke: Expression of pride in this congregation and it's being a place of safe refuge, acceptance, and love ● Jim Beckwith: Called attention to last page, referencing 2017 - having loyal minority voices raising objections. Licensing Reports

Exhibit A

Rose Baer

I received my Masters of Divinity degree from Lancaster Theological Seminary in May 2018. Currently I am a resident chaplain at Penn State Hershey Medical Center where my clinical assignment is the neonatal ICU and Women's Health. I have completed the Brethren History course through Bethany Seminary and plan to complete the Brethren Polity class next fall. In the future I hope to find a way to minister as a chaplain, either in a hospital, hospice, or extended care setting.

Jason Haldeman

I have completed all of the required classes for Bethany Theological Seminary's CATS (Certificate of Achievement in Theological Studies) and am continuing my Theological studies in the Master of Divinity program. This past year I attended an on-campus January intensive course "Sex, Gender and Theology." This past spring, I completed my year-long Ministry formation course "Exegeting the Call and Culture of Ministry" as well as "Introduction to New Testament History and Literature." Due to the arrival of baby Oliver, I am currently enrolled in only one class this Fall, "History of Christianity I." This year I plan to enroll in a January intensive, as well as two classes this spring. As a distance learning "connections" student, I anticipate being enrolled at Bethany for a number of years before I can complete all of my required studies for the M.Div program. Over the next few years, I will also be required to participate in other Ministry formation opportunities, in addition to my position here at Elizabethtown CoB. I remain thankful for the generous support of the congregation in my ongoing theological studies.

Naomi Kraenbring

I am in my fourth and final year at Bethany Seminary, and I intend to graduate in May 2019 with both an MDiv degree (concentration in Preaching and Worship, and emphasis in Evangelism and Missional Church) and an MA degree (concentration in Biblical Studies, and emphasis in Brethren Studies). My MA thesis topic is looking at a history of interpretation of Luke 1:26-38, with particular attention to Pietist/Anabaptist reception. I am hoping then to begin a PhD program in the fall of 2019, and I am currently working to clarify my field of interest and determine if there is a program to which I can commute. The discernment toward this trajectory was affirmed by my ministry formation placement this past spring at Elizabethtown College, where I immensely enjoyed teaching and working with undergraduate students. My absence this weekend is due to my attendance at the American Academy of Religion and Society of Biblical Literature conference in Denver, Colorado, with about 10,000 other religious studies scholars! I continue to be immensely appreciative of this congregation's support in so many ways. Thank you!

Josh Tindall

I completed my Master's of Divinity in the Fall of 2017 from Lancaster Theological Seminary. Currently I still need to complete two courses offered by Bethany Theological Seminary in order to apply for ordination. I anticipate having the courses completed and working towards my final ordination interview sometime mid to late 2019.

...lead a life worthy of your calling, for you have been called by God...from Eph. 4

Stepping out in faith. Several years ago, our congregation adopted the tagline “Practicing Peace, Service and Openness to All.” It was a natural expression and outgrowth of what it means to “live the love the God.” Reciting it every week as we gather for worship, including it on letterheads, banners, mugs and more, these three simple, yet foundational practices – peace, service and openness – have guided our life together. We have the confidence to be the people together that God has created us to be!

- Most recently, we sent an articulate and thoughtful request to the District Board to withdraw their proposal for punitive measures for clergy officiating at same-sex weddings. That letter drew much attention far and wide as well as significant support from like-minded congregations and individuals around the district and denomination.
- We observe our congregation stepping out in faith as we consider a capital campaign and possible building project, which will enable our ministries of peace, service and openness to remain viable and growing, far, far into the future.

This is an exciting time for us to be in ministry, as together we have the confidence to step out in faith even more boldly! This is who we are!

May Council Vote Affirmation to Host ECNS and ECCC. The Pastoral Team is encouraged by the additional clarity regarding the congregation’s commitment to ECCC and ECNS. We recognize that this was not an easy topic or decision; it contained both significant complexity and high emotion. To see the council discuss and deliberate together was a beautiful moment where we believe the Spirit was at work. We are excited for the ways in which this clarity settles a nagging uncertainty that often led to indecisiveness around both building and ministry decisions. This decision emboldens our ministry for the future. Well done!

Partner Congregations. Today Pastor Greg is preaching at Cincinnati CoB. University Park CoB recently sent a letter of support during ANE same-sex marriage policy proposal. These relationships are strong, and still hold potential for growth.

NYC--After four years of fundraising and anticipation, 15 of our Youth attended National Youth Conference. This 15-day Bus trip and conference was a wonderful experience for the Youth and advisors who attended. In total there were 37 Youth and Advisors from Ambler, Mt. Wilson and even Brazil who Joined Elizabethtown CoB on our Bus trip. We were able to see Manchester University, National Parks, Native American Mounds, a Hutterite community, The Cleveland Zoo, Mount Rushmore and many other sights along the way. National Youth Conference was a powerful and moving experience for many of our Youth, plenty of memories were made on this trip that will last a lifetime. A special thank you for supporting the Pastors in attending this quadrennial conference and to all who have supported our fundraising efforts over the years, without you this trip could not have happened. We are already looking forward to NYC 2022!

Sabbath Rest – Josh Tindall This summer, after 12 years of ministry at ECOB, I went on a Sabbath Rest from late July through early September. As stated in the Church of the Brethren guidelines, “the Sabbath is a time to abstain from everyday work and to relax mind, body, and soul in order to be filled, nourished, and freed from worry about how one is doing.” This certainly was that time for me and I am very grateful to all of you for that opportunity.

During my time of Sabbath rest, I met with a spiritual advisor who helped guide my time and provided resources for spiritual practice, prayer and quiet meditation. I enjoyed wonderful time off with family, creating many great memories spending quality time with Amy and Elizabeth. In addition, I engaged in two coaching programs on leadership development and personal growth.

In preparation for Sabbath Rest, I attended the National Worship Leaders conference in Nashville, TN. To finish my Sabbath Rest I combined a spiritual retreat in Colorado with a visit to one of Colorado’s largest churches, which has one of the leading music and streaming ministries in the country. These trips, along with several musical masterclasses along the way provided me with a wealth of musical resources and ideas. I have already begun to incorporate many of these into our music ministry here in the form of new music, creative arrangements and our jazz worship service several weeks ago.

I look forward to sharing more about this time very special time of family, rest, renewal and growth with you all in the coming months through conversation, written word and musical expression. Thank you all again for this very special opportunity!

Christian Education Commission

Report to Council

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL – The Commission has worked to find appropriate spaces for all of the children's programs. A special thank you to Karin Laszakovits for taking a leadership role in organizing and recruiting teachers for Shine (pre-k). The Shine class is currently splitting into two groups during the second hour to provide age appropriate care for the younger and older pre-k groups. A December meeting is being planned with BLAZE teachers and helpers to clean and organize BLAZE materials and areas. Both Jr. High and Sr. High classes are going well and we appreciate the teachers that have stepped in to fill open positions. Children's Church now meets on the third Sunday of each month. Children are also welcome to join the children's choir which meets on Wednesday nights to practice and sings once a month in church.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL— This year our BVS theme was peace using the curriculum Peace Lab. Children enjoyed bible study, games, drama, music and fellowship. The CE Commission wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all of the adult and youth volunteers that have helped make VBS a success.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL – An adult elective series is again being planned for January 6 through February 3 of 2018. The 20/30s class has been meeting consistently since June. The class has been meeting with different members of our church through a series called The Most Interesting (wo)Men in the World. As this class and others continue to be active, we have been searching for new adult appropriate spaces in our church building to provide an environment for continued growth.

ECCC/NURSERY SCHOOL - The commission has been working with Pat Williams to be in communication with the ECCC and the Nursery School. Our goal is to effectively share space with both entities and improve our relationship with ECCC and the Nursery School.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENT PROJECT -- The commission has appreciated the opportunity to think through its mission and how that is impacted by the church building. We look forward to working toward the best use of the new space that a building improvement project may offer.

LOOKING AHEAD – The Commission spent some time wrestling with the lack of space that we have for our adult Sunday School classes. Although it has not been an easy decision, we have decided to get a trailer that would be able to house two classrooms. These classrooms will be designated for teens or adults.

FINALLY, THANK YOU – to a wonderful group of people who are teachers, helpers, and volunteers that make our Christian Education programs possible.

Nurture Commission

2018 November Council Report

The Nurture Commission was involved with the following activities since our May Council Meeting:

Faith Markers:

- Blessing of the Children was held on May 20 for two of our 4-year olds.
- Ten 5th Graders' received "The Meanest Man in Patrick County" on June 3rd.
- Three 3rd Graders' received Bibles on September 9.

Family Camp Weekend at Camp Swatara was June 15-17 with many families attending and enjoying the great outdoors.

15 Youth and 7 Advisors from our church joined 13 other Youth and 3 Advisors from Mount Wilson and Ambler COB's on the bus to NYC.

The All-Church Picnic was held on August 26. A beautiful day, with good food, fellowship, bingo and a Honduran Dance Troupe with over 200 people in attendance.

The Women's Retreat was held on October 13 at Brethren Village and was well attended. Sandy Garman led the day on "Hospitality." Thanks to Sandy, Deb Ziegler, Rose Baer, Pat Hoffer and Amy Carroll for planning the event.

The Golden Age Dinner was October 28. A delicious meal was made by Lucy and Duane Hernley and served, by our youth, to 84 guests. Thanks to Joe and Ralph Detrick for providing entertainment and to Barb Shaw for creating the table centerpieces.

Be sure to save December 16 for Chili Supper and Christmas Caroling!

BRETHREN BUDDIES:

In May, the Brethren Buddies hiked to the observation tower at Governor Dick in Mt. Gretna and stopped for ice cream at Twin Kiss on the way home. The summer event, designed to say good-bye to rising 6th graders and welcome rising 3rd graders to Brethren Buddies, was a swim party at Willowood Swim Club. It was also a "retirement party" for Annalie Heinz and Karin Laszakovits as they moved on from Brethren Buddies leadership. The Brethren Buddies are now run ad-hoc as no one stepped up to fill Annalie and Karin's positions.

YOUTH MINISTRY TEAM:

The junior high had a kick-off party to start the new school year and a "chill time" to hang out and play.

The senior high had their trip to NYC and dinner at Meg and Dave Hershey's.

Resources Commission

REPORT TO CHURCH COUNCIL, 11/8/2018

Resources Commission: Dick Keesey, Chair; Duane Hernley, Vice-Chair; Barbara Ellis, Robert Hoffer, Richard Nornhold, Pam Reist, Assigned Pastor

We are working toward getting a service provider in place to provide assistance in improving and maintaining technical services within the church.

We also have been working toward an agreement with the college to provide parking spaces to them through the week on our lot in exchange for us using spaces in their lot across Cedar Street on Sunday. This could provide them with spaces they need to satisfy land development requirements and it could reduce the number of spaces we would need to have as a result of our building initiative.

We have been having major problems with our cleaning service. We are hopeful that these can be worked out, but also looking for an alternative.

Tim Byerly will provide leadership for a Safety Committee and Pastor Pam will serve as the committee liaison to the Leadership Team and the Resources Commission. Initially we plan to add two additional members to the group. A broad range of issues will be addressed. The safety and security of Sunday morning worship will be an area that is emphasized.

Because we have had an unusually wet summer, we have had to deal with some mold issues in a few classrooms. This has been resolved.

We are also currently working on obtaining a portable classroom trailer to help alleviate our need for more classrooms for our Sunday Morning classes. --Duane Hernley 11/8/2018

Lisa Rosenberger

I was born and raised in Virginia and YES... I do have a southern accent! I am from Blacksburg, Virginia, home of the Virginia Tech Hokies. I have lived in Lancaster County for the past 25 years and feel completely at home here. My husband, Jeff, and I met in Charlottesville, Virginia in the mid 80's, we were married and then moved to the west coast and settled in Southern California for several years. Later, after the birth of our first two children, we decided to relocate back to the east coast to be closer to our families. We have three grown children, Blake, Carley and Chad. Our family has been attending the Elizabethtown Church of the Brethren since 1993. Throughout my career, I have always been drawn to service related jobs, mostly because of my love for helping others. I have had a wide range of work experience, all of which have been very meaningful to me and have better prepared me for my current role as Membership Development Coordinator to The High Center for Family Business at Elizabethtown College. I am also a licensed Realtor in Pennsylvania for the past 11 years and enjoy educating my clients on buying and selling in the current real estate market. I look forward to continuing my role on the Nurture Commission.

I'm an engineer by training and have loved traveling the globe and experiencing different cultures. I have been attending the Etown CoB for four years and have enjoyed getting to know the diverse and interesting people in the congregation. I hold an Orange Belt in Pai Lum, White Dragon Kung Fu and I've eaten deep fried silk worm. I love heavy metal music, comic books, the beach and spending time with my family.

Witness

Jordan Eberhart

Jordan has been attending Etown CoB since 2014 when he and his partner, Jeff Bingeman, felt warmly welcomed and comfortable sharing their life stories. Jordan is one of 5 brothers, offering gifts of patience, compassion and resilience. He works full time at Armstrong World Industries managing project quality and accuracy of custom ceiling systems. Jordan has served on the church's Ministry and Action (MAP) team helping to develop and improve spiritual growth within the congregation. He continues to grow closer and deeper to Christ through fellowship with others, purposeful peacemaking and humble leadership.

Amy Nilsen

Amy Nilsen and her family (Hyung Ku and Olivia) began coming to Etown CoB during the month of October in 2014. Amy's life journey began in Philadelphia followed by a few years in Cinnaminson, New Jersey before moving to central PA at the age of 12. Amy holds a Bachelor's Degree from Penn State and earned her Master's Degree in 2014. Coming to Etown CoB during that same year was no coincidence and she made a pact with God to find a church home as soon as her studies were completed.

After an exhaustive search, she came upon Etown CoB and stayed for the intellectual approach to the bible, openness to all policy, and being able to have a few laughs from time to time during services.

Amy enjoys biking, hiking, and spending time with her family. Olivia (her daughter) is a Girl Scout, so be sure to buy cookies from her in January and February!

Al Sollenberger

Al is a long time member of this church. He is a retired Guidance Counselor, painter and produce grower. He enjoys visiting with family and going to grandchildren's sporting events as well as gardening, especially growing pumpkins.

Attended the church since 2005 and a member since 2006. Church of the Brethren member since 1982. Graduated from Manchester College and Bethany Theological Seminary. Part time camp program director at Camp Pine Lake, Northern Plains District. Member of Camp Ithiel Board member and Camp Dean and counselor, Atlantic Southeast District. Currently employed with Christian Churches United, Harrisburg as a prison chaplain and reentry ministry in the community.

ANE District Conference Delegate

Rose Baer

I would consider it a privilege to serve as a delegate for our congregation to the ANE district conference. I grew up in the Mennonite Church and transferred my membership to Etown CoB several years ago. Since then, I have been affirmed and encouraged to accept a call to ministry. I am a licensed minister who is currently completing a year-long residency as a chaplain at Penn State Hershey Medical Center. Following completion of the residency I hope to find work in a hospital, extended care facility, or hospice center.

ANE District Conference Delegate

Judith Gible

Judith is a retired pastor and has served over 20 years in Atlantic Northeast District. Celebrating eight years of marriage to Jay Gible this year, they have been members at Elizabethtown (again!) for nearly five years.

2019 Budget Narrative

Our congregation had a meaningful year in 2018:

- We witnessed boldly: ANE district same-gender policy stance, hygiene kits, immigration support
- Worship remains varied and vital. Mixed-age ensembles and the Jazz music service are notable
- Loving pastoral care ministries are provided by our pastors, deacons, and all!
- The 20-30-something faith formation class is new and thriving
- Nearly 200 children access our building through the week for care and education
- Hospitality efforts are enabling our visitors to receive information and follow up contacts
- Multiple organizations whose purposes align with our values receive financial gifts
- We affirmed our commitment to serve the community via Child Care and Nursery School
- Worship services are now live-streamed to engage people anywhere in the world
- Sketches to change our building were approved and the capital campaign is underway

These ministries and many more are planned and facilitated through our Church Board and commissions, with spiritual emphasis and inspiration provided by our pastoral staff. These ministries are funded through the faithful gifts of our members and friends. Here is a summary of our 2019 plan.

Ministry Salaries, Benefits, and Administration

Our pastors and staff members enhance the life of our congregation as they minister to us, serve with us, make connections with partner congregations, serve the district and denomination, and invest in further education and training. Allocation of our gifts in these areas provides:

- Competitive compensation for our staff members
- Continuing education and development for our staff
- A comprehensive benefits package for full-time staff members
- Expenses for staff and delegate attendance at Annual Conference
- Accounting services, office equipment and supplies

Total Budget – $550,926, up 1%, 63.8% of total budget

Resources

The Resources Commission oversees our building and grounds to put us in the best position possible to provide ministry within and beyond the walls of the church, now and into the future. The Resources Commission works to maintain and improve the functionality and appearance of our building. This budget is increased due to;

- Higher costs for heating fuel, insurance, and service contracts, including cleaning
- Rental costs for temporary classroom space
- Allocations for small improvements, repairs, and maintenance

Total Budget – $185,647, up 29.9%, 21.5% of total budget

Witness and Outreach

This commission plans and directs the congregation's witness to the world through evangelism, church extension, ecumenical relations, missions, social action, volunteer and international service, and mass media. In addition to the budget, annually, this Commission recommends allocation of 4% of the value of the Outreach and Ministry Education Fund balance (approximately $28,000) to organizations, funds, and events whose purposes and commitments are aligned with ours. We support many organizations locally and globally, including:

- Local: Samara Family Services, Etown Child Care Center, Etown Winter Shelter, Brethren Housing Assoc. (Harrisburg), Lancaster Co, Council of Churches (food bank, clothing, auto, etc), United Church of Etown (food bank, housing assistance, etc), CoB Youth Services, Run for Peace, Elizabethtown College.
- National and Global: On Earth Peace, New Community Project (enviro and justice efforts), Church World Service
- Denominational: Camp Swatara, ANE District allocation, Mission and Ministry Board (denomination), Bethany Theological Seminary, Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center, Brethren Village

Total Budget – $86,250, up 15%, 10% of total budget

Expressions

The Expressions Commission is responsible for providing programs related to worship, music, drama, celebrations, fellowship and the coordination of staff and volunteers to carry out these functions. An exciting expansion of the Expressions program falls outside of the budget with estate gifts being used to purchase items to benefit the music program. Allocation of our gifts here provides

- Aids to worship, music and special materials, worship and funeral bulletins, fellowship, audio, visual, and live-streaming ministries and volunteers

Total Budget – $11,002, no increase, 1.3% of total budget

Faith Formation/Christian Education

The Christian Education Commission has responsibility for providing faith formational experiences through programming that enables participants of all ages to grow in their understanding of God and the Bible. The Commission provides intentional instruction in the faith, which encourages maturity and life application. Almost 100% of Pastor Jason's time (not included here) is invested in Faith Formation activities. Other expenses include:

- Sunday School materials and resources
- Teacher training and recognition
- Vacation Bible School materials

Total Budget – $6300, up.05%, 0.7% of total budget

Nurture

The Nurture Commission is responsible for providing experiences that enable our congregation to grow in faith and benefit from participation in special age and subject-related groups. Included in the Nurture Commission budget is money for:

- Camp Swatara (Good as Gold) and National Youth Conference (NYC)
- Lenten worship, faith markers, graduate Sunday,
- Brethren Buddies, women's retreat, youth groups
- Parish Resource Center, Samaritan Counseling Center

Total Budget – $17,000, down 0.9%, 1.2% of total budget

Deacon Board

Our Deacons prepare and serve Love Feast and Communion; visit in hospitals, retirement homes and residences; assist in preparation for baptism; provide funeral meals; greet at the doors on Sunday mornings; assist the pastors; and tend to the overall wholeness or “shalom” of the congregation. Expense allocations here will provide:

- Local benevolences, funeral meals, and communion and love feast

Total Budget – $3,300, up 6.5%, 0.4% of total budget

Ministry Action Plan Teams

Our Ministry Action Plan has moved us forward in many exciting, new directions. We continue to focus on our partner congregation relationships, building initiatives, and growing spiritually, while also being engaged in visioning for a changed building full of new and growing ministries

Total Budget – $2700, down 61.4%, 0.3% of total budget

Income Summary

We are forecasting gifts from offerings to total $770,000 in 2018. This is an increase of 12% from the prior year. Such generosity enables us to achieve our ministry plans, support our staff, make contributions to organizations which share our values, pay costs related to the building project, and enrich our spiritual lives.

The budget proposed for 2019 assumes a 1% increase in offering income and a 19.7% increase in income from rents. The proposed budget calls for allocation of this income to our staff, building, witness and ministry activities in ways that most enable us to be an effective witness to the love of God.

In addition to financial resources, we allocate significant amounts of time and talent to our ministries. Our teachers, deacons, greeters, hospitality team, musicians, worship technicians, and many others devote hours of time to make our ministries thrive.

It is truly an exciting time to be a part of a vibrant church, and we are excited for the challenge of the ministry that God calls us to in 2019!

Position	Candidate	Term	Term Length
Church Board Chair Elect	Paula Burke	1st	3 yrs (1-Elect 2-Chair)
Witness Commission	Amy Karr	1st	3 yrs

Church Board Chair Elect

Paula Burke

Paula Knudsen Burke and her husband Kenny became members of Etown CoB by baptism in 2009. They have two children, Francis and James. Paula has been involved in a number of church activities, ranging from newsletter editor to Sunday School helper. Paula is the chair of the Accountability Committee, the group responsible for complying with certain provisions of the Child Protection Policy. She also is a member of the Run for Peace Planning team. Her favorite church role is helping with Vacation Bible School drama and making the kids laugh by playing ridiculous characters.

Witness Commission

Amy Karr

Amy Karr joined Etown CoB in Spring 2018 after attending for several months. One of the reasons she was drawn to Etown CoB was for their work on social justice issues. Amy lives in Elizabethtown with her husband, Kevin and their 3-year-old son Theodore. She spent most of life as a member of the United Methodist church but felt called to make a change in the last few years. Amy works for Fulton Financial Corporation in Lancaster City.
