Pavilion Project Campaign

At a Special Church Council Meeting, our congregation voted to move forward with building a multipurpose gathering space—a new pavilion designed for fellowship events, community meals, children's activities, and other ministries that connect and strengthen us. The project will proceed once we have secured 75% of the total cost in pledges. We have secured over 49% of our goal so far of $465,000. Paper campaign packets are available at the back of the sanctuary. Digital packets are available on the church website, etowncob.org. We are deeply grateful for your prayerful consideration and support.

Etown CoB Prayer Requests

When you have a personal prayer request to share with pastors or the larger church family, a new email address has been created that will automatically be sent to pastors at all times, including when the church office is closed: prayer@etowncob.org.

You are also always welcome to use the pastors' individual emails or call their offices directly, and voicemails will be automatically forwarded to them if they are not in their office:
